We invite practitioners, students, researchers, advocates, activists, preventionists, and other professionals to submit proposals for conference presentations. We are particularly interested in proposals from administrators, staff and faculty working on North Carolina campuses, however we are accepting proposals from other professionals, and those outside of North Carolina.

We are interested in presentations that illustrate Campus SaVE and Title IX requirements including innovative approaches to primary prevention. Proposals focusing on marginalized populations, Historically Black College and Universities, and community colleges are strongly encouraged. Each workshop will be 90 minutes in length. We are particularly interested in proposals from the following topic areas:

- ❖ Awareness Campaigns
- ❖ Bystander Interventions
- ❖ Campus Climate Assessment
- ❖ Campus Policy
- ❖ Campus Response Teams
- ❖ Comprehensive Prevention Plans
- ❖ Dating Violence and Stalking Programs
- ❖ Defining Consent
- ❖ Employee Training
- ❖ Engaging Men
- ❖ First-year Programming
- ❖ Peer Education
- ❖ Program Evaluation
- ❖ Response Protocols & Confidentiality
- ❖ Student Conduct/Disciplinary Processes
- ❖ Survivor Rights

Guidelines for submitting proposals:

- ❖ Proposals that focus on skill development, practical application, lessons learned/results, and data-driven strategies and programs are encouraged.
- ❖ Proposals for interactive workshops are encouraged.
- ❖ Proposals must be developed for a 90-minute workshop.
- ❖ Proposals are due by Monday November 3rd, 2014.
- ❖ Proposals must be submitted via email to: Juliette Grimmert Juliette@chrysalisnetwork.com. Please put "Solving the Puzzle Workshop Proposal" as the Subject Line.
- ❖ For any questions, please contact Juliette at (919) 624-9575 or Juliette@chrysalisnetwork.com.
- ❖ Proposal submission does not guarantee workshop acceptance.
- ❖ Presenters will be notified of acceptance status via email by Friday November 14th, 2014.
- ❖ If your proposal is accepted, up to two presenters will receive discounted conference registration.
