

New York State Coalition Against Sexual Assault — NYSCASA

Call for Workshop Proposals- Extended!

The Request for NYSCASA Conference Workshop Proposals has been extended!

NYSCASA is still seeking proposals for a multi-day, multi-track statewide conference in Albany on March 29-30, 2016. We plan to offer a minimum of these four tracks: Social Justice; Self Care; Prevention; and Institutional Advocacy (campus, prison, military). We anticipate approximately 200 advocacy, health care, law enforcement, mental health, criminal justice, campus, and other allied professionals to attend the conference.

Please consider sharing your knowledge of best practices, current trends, and cutting edge topics.

Your workshop proposal should include:

- Name and contact information for presenter
- Title of proposed workshop
- Intended audience for workshop (i.e., which group of professionals)
- Level of workshop (advanced, intermediate, beginner)
- Learning objectives for workshop
- Outline for workshop
- Workshop description/abstract (no more than 200 words please)
- Audiovisual needs
- Your request for compensation (NYSCASA can support a limited number of speaker fees and related travel costs)
- Presenter biography (no more than 200 words please)
- Resume of presenter

Send your workshop proposal no later than October 23, 2015, to Josie McPherson via: postal mail (28 Essex Street, Albany, NY 12206); fax (518-482-4248); or email jmcperson@nyscasa.org.

Presenters of accepted proposals will be notified by December 1, 2015.

Please share with this anyone you'd like to invite as a presenter. Thank you!
