KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

Charlie Craig and Dave Mullins

MASTERPIECE CAKESHOP V. COLORADO CIVIL RIGHTS COMMISSION

Charlie Craig (He, Him, His) and Dave Mullins (He, Him, His), who unsuccessfully sought to purchase a cake from Masterpiece Cake Shop for their Colorado wedding, a case that reached the Supreme Court last year, will join us for their first ever national Keynote.

Cecelia Gentili

POSE (FX) ACTRESS

Cecilia Genitli (She, Her, Hers) plays Ms. Orlando in the Season One of Pose. Originally from Argentina, Cecilia found her passion for advocacy and community service when she started working as an intern at the LGBT Community Center in New York City several years ago. From 2012 to 2016, she managed the Transgender Health Program at the Apicha Community Health Center.

She recently left her position as Managing Director of Policy and Public Affairs at GMHC—the world's first and leading provider of HIV/AIDS prevention, care, and advocacy—to start her own consulting company, Transgender Equality Consulting.

Cecilia is also a contributor to Trans Bodies, Trans Selves: A Resource for the Transgender Community, and a board member at Transcend Legal and Translatina Network. For fun, she loves performing at storytelling and stand-up comedy events where she talks about her life experiences. Cecilia is very passionate about advocating for her community, especially Latina transgender women who may have a history of sex work, drug use and incarceration.
