WEBINAR

Department of Justice, Office on Violence Against Women Campus Program Webinar

Please join us for a Webinar on Wednesday, October 23, 2019
2:00 PM – 3:30 PM EST

TOPIC: How campus CCRTs can create accessible and welcoming programs for survivors with disabilities and Deaf survivors

Facilitator: Anneliese Brown, VERA Institute for Justice

OVW Technical Assistance Provider: Center on Domestic Violence, University of Colorado Denver

DESCRIPTION: The purpose of this webinar is to provide campus-based Coordinated Community Response Teams (CCRTs) with practical information on how to enhance the accessibility of the campus response to gender-based violence, and how to ensure CCRT meetings are accessible and welcoming to team members with disabilities. This will include information on disability and Deaf culture and the risks, unique tactics, and barriers faced by student survivors. The webinar will also discuss implications for the CCRT's work and identify steps for achieving access.

This webinar is open to all campuses and organizations.
